

The Hopkinton Independent School presents

THE LAST CHILD IN THE WOODS

By Richard Louv

A Panel Book Discussion for Parents, Educators and
Anyone Who Loves Outdoor Experiences

Sunday, March 18 3:00 pm

Concord Unitarian Universalist Church
Pleasant Street, Concord

Panel including a religious leader, educator, artist, naturalist and psychologist will consider:

"Our children are the first generation to be raised without meaningful contact with the natural world."

What are the "social and ecological consequences of America's divorce from nature?"

Program is free and open to the public. Seating is limited. Professional development credit may be arranged. For more information call the Hopkinton Independent School at 226-4662 or www.hopkintonind.org.
